FEDA Gold Awards

Kick off the 2021 FEDA Conference and celebrate industry achievements with other members, industry partners and friends. This special dinner, open to all attendees, is an opportunity to showcase and acknowledge the work accomplished by our industry colleagues. Awards will honor member companies and individuals that have demonstrated exemplary leadership and service in the industry.

Wednesday Keynote and Opening General Session

The first full day of the 2021 FEDA Annual Conference will feature a general session packed with leading industry thinkers and trend-setting operators. FEDA is excited to welcome several notable names from the Nashville restaurant scene, including Food Network star Maneet Chauhan; Brandon Styll, host of the Nashville Restaurant Radio Podcast; and our keynote speaker Craig Barber, CEO of Restaurant Growth Services, an operator of more than 400 restaurant units, including O'Charley's Restaurant + Bar and Ninety Nine Restaurant & Pub.

Thursday Keynote and General Session

The focus on supply chain and operator challenges will continue on the second full day of programming for the 2021 FEDA Annual Conference. The morning will begin with a keynote address from David Davoudpour, chairman and CEO of Royal Capital Corp., owner of Shoney's Restaurants. Later, Dr. Andrea Sordi of the Global Supply Chain Institute will moderate a panel discussion about the global supply chain issues impacting the foodservice equipment industry. The panel will build off the previous day's Partner Exchange Roundtables and will feature Tim Fitzgerald, CEO of The Middleby Corporation; Kirby Mallon, president of Elmer Schultz Services; and Brad Wasserstrom, president of The Wasserstrom Company.
